Where should you click to select the chart?

The screenshot shows a Microsoft PowerPoint slide titled "Successful countries". The slide contains a chart with the subtitle "Country rank by average rating of top 10". The chart has two data points: 2740 and 2720. A blue bar is positioned between these values. The chart is located on a purple background with white text. The slide number 6 is visible in the top left corner of the slide area.

A screenshot of a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation. The current slide is titled "Introduction". It features three yellow circles arranged horizontally. The first circle is labeled "Setup", the second "Rules", and the third "End of the game". Arrows point from each circle to text labels: "A player resigns" (above the first circle), "Checkmate" (above the third circle), and "Draw" (below the third circle). Below the circles is a small image of a chess knight. The slide has a purple background. On the left, the slide navigation pane shows slide 11 selected. At the bottom, the status bar indicates "Slide 11 of 12" and "English (Zimbabwe)".

Where should you click in order to select three copies for printing?

The screenshot shows a Microsoft PowerPoint window titled "5.pptx". On the left, there's a vertical ribbon menu with options: Home, New, Open, Info, and Save. The "Copies" dropdown in the center of the dialog is set to "1". Below it is a "Print" button. To the right of the "Copies" dropdown is a "Printer" section showing "VersaLink C405 (redirected 2)" and "Ready". At the bottom, there's a purple bar labeled "Overview" and a navigation bar with page numbers from 60 to 74, where page 72 is highlighted. Below the navigation bar are buttons for "Flag", "Clear", and "Answer".
